MEMORANDUM: 01-095
DATE: July 3, 2001
TO: Volatility Mailing List
FROM: Tom Schofield
SUBJECT: D2887 Extended Technical Memorandum: End of TMC Monitoring

At the ASTM D02.B07 meeting of June 18, 2001, the section instructed the TMC to stop monitoring calibration tests for the D2887 Extended test method. Effective immediately, the TMC will no longer monitor this method, reference oil shipments and assignments will no longer be made, data dictionaries and report forms will no longer be maintained. The participating labs have been individually contacted about the disposal of their TMC reference oil samples.

Please direct any inquiries to my attention.
