SUBJECT: D5480 Technical Memorandum: Termination of TMC Monitoring

At the ASTM D02.B07 meeting of June 17, 2002, the section agreed that the TMC will stop monitoring and accepting calibration data for the D5480 test method because there are no longer any active or interested participants in this monitoring program. Effective immediately, the TMC will stop monitoring, distributing reference oils, issuing calibration status and all related support for the D5480 test method.

Please direct any inquiries to my attention.
