

The image shows three metal strips stacked vertically. Each strip has a distinct woven or mesh-like texture. The strips are dark in color, possibly black or dark grey, and appear to be made of a metal alloy. The top strip is slightly offset to the right, the middle strip is centered, and the bottom strip is offset to the left. The background is a bright, yellowish-white light source, creating a strong contrast with the dark metal.

L37-912 Retrofit Run
CMIR 61857
TMC-155
ASTM-0016
P4L870A